

DISTINGUISHED PERFORMANCE AWARD FOR TRUSTEE LEADERSHIP

Bruce MacLaury
President Emeritus
The Brookings Institution

CED is pleased to recognize Bruce MacLaury as an exemplary leader, thoughtful advisor, and dedicated Trustee of our Board.

Bruce currently serves as Co-Chair of CED's Postsecondary Education Subcommittee. His input and guidance of our efforts to increase the productivity and effectiveness of the postsecondary sector by mobilizing business attention and support for broad-access institutions have been invaluable. We greatly appreciate the time he has devoted to developing CED's pragmatic policy recommendations and sharing them with relevant business, academic, and policy communities.

Bruce is a long-time member of CED's two key governing bodies – the Policy & Impact Committee and the Executive Committee. As an active participant on these committees, he has demonstrated his dedication to CED's mission, and has helped shape its adaptation to changing times.

Bruce previously served as President of the Brookings Institution and as President of the Federal Reserve Bank of Minneapolis. He also worked at the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and at the Treasury Department. From this distinguished career, Bruce brings extensive knowledge and policy expertise to CED's programs.

We are proud to have Bruce's leadership on the Board and thank him for the many contributions he has made to our governance and policy programs.

BROOKINGS